from happening

You don't think women should confront to set an example on what happens if people keep doing it

Basically setting example that it's not the guys fault it's the girls but this is how you get over it and this is how you avoid it

That's where your wrong I would never want this to happen to another

I would never ever wish it on anyone

I'm afraid that's all

I'm just scared

letting John do

Because he's got to come up with some excuse

I highly doubt he's telling people he did

I'm pretty sure he's telling people it never happened

H

I told you two or three times and you just denied it and said no John told me he didn't he wouldn't lie to me

Cause I told him from now on it didn't happen

Well now I'm glad they didn't give me that report cause I would have cried if I saw that

No I thought he would have wanted his names cleared so we were going with that plan and [REDACTED] [REDACTED] told me he was talking to lawyer

U know the only thing I have going for me is that I don't have herpes

And the fact that he didn't tell you he had it

That makes him even more of a sick fuck

Granted you can't transmit it unless you're having an outbreak but

Well I'm clear so

He was being a manipulative fuck

Exactly 17-year-olds Ain't gonna listen to their parents because they're stupid they make bad decisions

I don't know why I've always felt ashamed about it

But it's something you need to change

That's why I kept it from my mom till she forced me

How did she force with You keeping it from her

She could tell I was

I don't think u would do anything to hurt me

And how would it go to court if you're not doing anything about it obviously Kat-lyn can't

She can take this to court over the kid if John ever wanted to do anything and this is a good reason to not let him see his kids so I'm afraid they would make me come in

I shouldn't have brought

OK but there is no statute of limitations on statutory rape so there's no time limit for you to change your mind it could happen 10 years from now

So he's always going to be worried

Than why is he even messaging you asking you what you're gonna do about it

He's asking you because he's afraid you're going to go to the police just to try to get everything hushed

He knows I'm not

He asked me what I was gonna do about it

U completely betrayed me I trusted u and u knew that I'm sorry I did it because I thought you were worth standing up for

And that monster should be in jail I thought you felt the same way I see now I asked you why and you hung up on me I guess you really don't feel like he should I'm sorry I did what I did I thought me and you both felt he should be accountable for on speakable unincriminating

No I hung up cause I don't have to explain myself I don't HAVE to do anything I am protecting nothing but my mental health at this point cause u have no idea what I go through

I lost you forever and said don't worry I'm being punished for what I did wrong worse than any other thing in my life I realize I fucked up because of the consequences of my actions because I lost the only thing I've ever cared about that wasn't my kid

The only thing I asked is for you to tell me why he shouldn't be in jail

You have talked about every other traumatizing situation tonight until I asked you for a reason he shouldn't be in jail

But I don't have to explain myself I told u why u hurt me and how that hurt me that was all I wanted to do

I'm sorry I don't understand what you go through I was there before I realized I was a victim and I was a victim because there is a monster and other people
